Spirit of the State Press

The Albany Journal says:

The time has come when the fidelity of every [Union] man in [illegible] We must progress or fall back into the old bygone of [illegible] slavery. There can be no such thing as standing still. The war has wrought great changes in our [form of] Government and a consequent change in our governmental policy. The Constitution [illegible] as it was at [illegible] [illegible] to the beginning, obliterating all recollection of secession, war and the abolition of slavery. The political issues growing out of the war of the rebellion has arrived. The time has come when the tenacity and fidelity of every Republican is to be tried, whether the war was fought in vain or in defense and for the maintenance of great principles.

The Copperheads have for some time been busy circulating reports that in different localities in the State quite a number have lately joined their ranks who acted with the opposite party in the last election. The Record has made some inquiry about some of these stories and states the result as follows:

We were told some time since that a family containing a number of voters had gone nearly all over to Democracy, and that quite a number of neighbors of theirs had done the same. Meeting several men from that neighborhood lately we learn that no such thing is possible. They all say they would as quickly desert and join the rebels if the war was now going on, as vote the Democratic ticket under present circumstances. If Democracy has any gains to count they are [from] rebel immigration. Price's army has done something for them, but the Union party stands firmly by its principles and can make them triumphant.

The Sentinel has the following about Andrew Johnson, which seems to be intended as a parting kick:

Andrew Johnson joined the Union cause—not that he hated that of the rebels, but that Andrew Johnson's vanity might be gratified, and Andrew Johnson's personal enemies punished. The sequel is known. He has followed Davis like a blood hound, and even now, with the sword of justice hanging over himself, he clamors for the trial of his rival as a traitor. He was a proselyte to universal freedom, but the fawning of those who he spurned him as a tailor before the war, was too much for the vanity of Andrew Johnson, and he surrendered himself into the embraces of the [illegible] of the lost cause. History has [illegible] with the traitor who sneaked into the [illegible] camp under the guise of friendship, and sought to accomplish by treachery what braver men had failed to do with the sword.

The Roseburg Ensign has the following remarks on the Democratic platform:

We print to-day the Democratic State Platform. The first resolution refers to the old Virginia and Kentucky resolutions, on which the Democratic rebellion was founded. The second [illegible] doctrine thrown in to catch the popular eye. The third is the result of what Democracy has learned by bitter experience in the late sanguinary strife. The fourth is contradicted by almost every bill that was ever offered by a Democrat in Congress. The fifth is the regular [illegible] [illegible] which they do not mean, at least the whole Democratic party North and South have for the last eight years vigorously opposed this doctrine. The sixth is probably intended to refer to suffrage; if so and honestly adhered to it would disfranchise every servile Copperhead in Christendom. The seventh favors paying the public debt in [illegible] because it was so contracted [illegible] The eighth is a dig at the liquor license tax. The ninth is borrowed from poor Andy, and is as little as they could do for him since the failure of the Salem dispatch of condolence. The tenth is either a misprint or a flat [illegible] school. The words "Congress and Executive" in this resolution must be transposed to accord with facts. The eleventh is a transparent sop thrown to that better class of our citizens from the Emerald Isle who stood nobly up in defense of our Union against its Democratic assailants. The twelfth, like the fifth, is stolen from the Abolitionists.

The Unionist thus explains why Rev. J. S. Smith is a Democrat:

The position he occupied during the first year of the war was ludicrous in the extreme, and called forth many a derisive laugh and jeer from sensible and consistent men of both parties. His [illegible] gave him ingress to and a certain degree of social standing among a number of [illegible] men to whom he always expressed himself in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war for the Union. Indeed, we have been informed from a perfectly reliable source that Mr. Smith has on [illegible] than one occasion said to personal [illegible] that he identified himself partially with the Democracy of Oregon for the sole purpose of preventing other Democratic politicians from forcing the party into rebellion. While such declarations give a fair index to the cool calculating composition of the man, they are not of such a character as to impress any Union man with a sense of obligation to Mr. Smith. Neither are they at all complimentary to such men as Bush, [illegible] Kelly, Stout, Lane and others whose actions have at least been consistent in a bold adherence to the fortunes of their party.

Poor Abbott of the Albany Democrat is still at work with might and main, with brain and brawn, against the negro. He is under the impression that the negro is gaining on him, and that in fact, his colored enemy will soon be his equal and perhaps his superior, and his consciousness of this state of things makes the Democrat more severe than ever on the "nigger." One of the most singular phenomena of this age is to hear Democrats declaring that the negro is an inferior being, who cannot by any possibility be instructed, enlightened or elevated, and at the same time to see these very same Democrats in an agony of terror lest the negro will become their equal. It is a remarkable fact that they choose to consider that there is an irrepressible conflict, an irreconcilable war for the ascendency between themselves and this "inferior being."

The Umatilla Press talks or eructates in this way:

Nothing is more common at the present day than to hear [illegible] the Union party saved [illegible] [illegible] Nor is the remark confined to a few [illegible] from the traitor [illegible] who disgrace the Senate chamber of the nation—where once we heard the grand oratory of Webster, the lofty eloquence of Clay and the fervid appeals of Calhoun [illegible] the senseless babbling of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Whether such [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] their [illegible] [illegible] that we shall not be [illegible] the question of [illegible] [illegible] deny the truth of their assertion that they saved the country.

Of course the country was saved by those constitutional Democrats who first allowed secession to be consummated, who as the next step [illegible] arms for the purpose of [illegible] the scheme to divide the country, who at every stage of the struggle resisted with all their might every measure calculated to subdue the rebellion, and who, when the victory was nearly gained, declared the war a failure and demanded that it should go on no longer. These are the fellows who, as the Press would have it, "saved the country."

The Courier of this week is much less profound than its readers have a right to expect. Indeed [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the Democratic Convention. The principal article in the current number of the Courier is a [illegible] at the [illegible] and Army of the Republic. [illegible] [illegible] that the men who fought [illegible] Confederates are to be frightened by blowing and [illegible] slinging Confederates who kept out of harm's way and never smelt gunpowder during the long unpleasantness.

The Railroad Terminus

[EDITOR:] Please allow me a few thoughts through your columns to the people of our end of the city. Although there has been much talk in a quiet way, yet [illegible] have probably an adequate idea of the immense importance in a commercial point of view of the location of the depot of the Oregon Central Railroad.

The influence that will be felt upon real estate wherever this grand enterprise may be located through the counties of Washington, Yamhill, Polk, and also on through the valleys south, especially at points selected for receiving and discharging freights, must necessarily be very great. Yet it must be conceded that it dwindles into insignificance when compared with the influence it will exert upon real estate at its important terminus in the city of Portland.

The natural tendency of the growth of this city is lengthwise up or down the river, and the location of the depot will exercise an important influence in that matter.

There are certain peculiarities in the site of the city of Portland which makes it impossible to accommodate both ends of the city with equal facilities from the terminal point of the road. One peculiarity is this: the high ground commencing near Vaughn's mill and running south, interposes a serious barrier to the circulation of loaded cars through the city by horses.

If the depot is located below the Bone Yard, it is there forever, and no loaded car discharging freight nor empty ones receiving will ever be seen in the neighborhood of Vaughn's Mill or the Oregon Iron Works, because the nature of the ground forbids it. And if the depot is made above Hayden & Co's new saw mill no cars can ever be taken to Couch's wharf for like reasons. And the fact is apparent that the Railroad Company must have a water front, and just as soon as they put forty miles of road in operation, ever after that we will see the ocean steamers tie up at their wharf and there free of charge, discharge and receive their freight.

Again, when the first company establishes its depot the second company will also come in and make a common depot. With these facts who can estimate the future value of this location?

If it is located at the lower end of the city, then all the commerce of the city, in fact all the commerce of Oregon, Idaho and Washington Territory will be concentrated there and real estate will go up to fabulous prices, while our end of the city will only occupy a place of secondary importance.

By making a bold strike now, we may secure the termini of all the railroads concentrating in this city.

The steamships and river steamers will come up to the railroad depot, and our own real estate will be enhanced in value more than a thousand per cent, and all the heavy business now at the lower end of the city will be transferred to our end.

It is said that the claimants of the Caruthers property have offered twenty acres—on the river above the new saw mill, against thirteen acres offered by Couch & Flanders. This is not enough. We ought to make a sure thing of it by subscribing in cash and property a sum not less than two hundred thousand dollars; our interests demand that we should do this.

The railroad company must have some means to build the road, and it is reasonable to suppose that they will be influenced in the location of their depot by the amount of material aid that may be offered them.

Their engineer, it is said, will start on Monday next to survey and locate their road, and will drive the depot stakes before they stop.

Now is the time for us to take this matter in hand if we desire the depot in the south end of the city. Shall we make the effort?

Repeal of Eighty Millions of Taxes

[From the Chicago Tribune, March 12.]

The best piece of news from Washington since the adoption of the resolution to impeach a law-breaking President is the announcement of the passage of the bill reported by the Committee of Ways and Means to repeal all taxes on manufactures. The almost unanimous vote by which the bill passed the House ensures its adoption by the Senate in time to take effect on the first of April. The Chairman of the Committee, Mr. Schenck, remarked in his speech on the bill, that—

The Committee did not propose to remove the taxation from all manufactures, but to retain it on coal oil distilled from coal, on fermented liquors, on distilled spirits of all kinds, on tobacco, snuff and cigars, and on illuminating gas. The aggregate taxes collected from these articles in 1867 was $61,429,019, so that the diminution made by the bill would amount to $84,794,654.

The relief that is to be given to the manufacturing interests of the United States will therefore amount to something like eighty-five millions a year. Congress has already stricken off the cotton tax, and thereby relieved the South from a burden of twenty-five millions, the beneficial effect of which is already witnessed in the greatly improved confidence in the future on the part of the cotton growers.

The removal of the five per cent tax on manufactures is really equal to a relief of ten per cent to the consumers and producers of domestic goods, because many kinds of wares paid excises on each change of form as they passed from the lower to the higher stages of advancement. The excise was added to the selling price of the goods and the consumer was obliged not only to pay it, but also the retailer's profit on the tax. The effect of the removal of this onerous burden must be to greatly encourage and promote all kinds of production. The manufacturer will be able to sell cheaper, which will cause the consumer to purchase more goods, and hence to create a larger demand for fabrics, giving more employment to the various mechanics and laborers.

This bill passed by a Republican House of Representatives will be of greater value to the industry of the country than all the tariffs ever enacted since the first one was levied at Tarifa by the Moorish pirates upon the commerce of vessels passing the Straits of Gibraltar. This is a sort of protection to American industry we can heartily endorse. Removing taxation affords a protection that every one can understand and appreciate, for it means that less is taken from the consumer and more is left in the hands of the producer. But protection by increasing taxes on the consumer of imported goods is like Irish dividends—assessments on the stockholders instead of profits paid to him.

When the House bill becomes a law there will be nothing to hinder American manufacturers from flourishing like a green bay tree, except incapacity and want of enterprise, unless it be the enormous tariff on importations, which surely taxes many raw materials essential to manufacturing, and greatly enhances the cost of labor and the expense of living. The more sagacious and reflecting manufacturers are getting their eyes open to this fact.

A reduction of eighty-five millions of excises on manufactures and twenty-five millions on cotton [will] necessarily create a big hole in the revenues. But it is proposed to make this loss good by retrenchment of expenses and a more faithful collection of the excises on whiskey and tobacco. Retrenchment alone will enable the government to get along without the income from manufactures. But a penny saved is better than a penny earned, and an honest enforcement of the law will produce more money from whiskey and tobacco than will be lost by the removal of the cotton tax. When a corrupt, law-breaking President is deposed there is no doubt but that the whiskey and [tobacco] tax [will be] collected, but so long as he holds office they never will.

A bill has been introduced into the Kentucky House of Representatives providing that elections of Representatives in Congress from Kentucky shall be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November next—the day of the Presidential election, and on the same day every two years thereafter. The bill will become a law. Heretofore the first Monday in August has been the day for electing Congressmen in Kentucky.

Johnson failed to tan the measures of Grant, but Grant neatly tanned the hide of Johnson. If the President has forgotten his early trade, his general has not.—Chicago Tribune.

Andrew Jackson and the Negro

For the benefit of those Democratic admirers of Andrew Jackson who labor under the fond delusion that he was of their faith, we republish the following proclamation addressed by him to the colored people of Louisiana during the war of 1812, leaving the reader to make his own application and draw his own references:

HEADQUARTERS 7TH MILITARY DISTRICT,
MOBILE, September 21, 1814.

PROCLAMATION.

To the free colored inhabitants of Louisiana: Through a mistaken policy you have heretofore been deprived of a participation in the glorious struggle for the national rights in which our country is engaged. This no longer shall exist.

As sons of freedom you are now called upon to defend our most inestimable blessing. As Americans, your country looks with confidence to her adopted children for a valorous support, as a faithful return for the advantages enjoyed under her mild and equitable government. As fathers, husbands and brothers, you are summoned to rally round the standard of the Eagle, to defend all which is dear in existence.

Your country, although calling for your exertions, does not wish you to engage in her cause without amply remunerating you for the services rendered. Your intelligent minds are not to be led away by false representations. Your love of honor would cause you to despise the man who should attempt to deceive you. In the sincerity of a soldier and the language of truth I address you.

To every noble hearted, generous, freeman of color volunteering to serve during the present contest with Great Britain, and no longer, there will be paid the same bounty in money and lands now received by the white soldiers of the United States, viz: $124 in money and 160 acres of land. The non-commissioned officers and privates will also be entitled to the same monthly pay and daily rations and clothes furnished to any American soldier.

On enrolling yourselves in companies, the Major General commanding will select officers for your government from your white fellow citizens. Your non-commissioned officers will be appointed from among yourselves.

Due regard will be paid to the feelings of freemen and soldiers. You will not, by being associated with white men in the same corps, be exposed to improper comparisons or unjust sarcasm. As a distinct independent battalion or regiment, pursuing the path of glory, you will, undivided, receive the applause and gratitude of your countrymen.

To assure you of the sincerity of my intentions and my anxiety to engage your invaluable services to our country, I have communicated my wishes to the Governor of Louisiana, who is fully informed as to the manner of enrollment, and will give you every necessary information on the subject of this address.

ANDREW JACKSON,
Major General Commanding.

Andrew Johnson's Veracity

As Johnson has undertaken to raise a question of veracity with several men of known reputation and established character, it is not amiss to inquire something about his antecedents in this line. It will be remembered that in the summer of 1862 the rebel General Bragg started on his expedition to Kentucky. General Buell was in command of the Army of the Cumberland. He was in Alabama at the date of General Bragg's movement, but marched to intercept him, and went as far north as Louisville, Kentucky, leaving a military force at Nashville, Tennessee, where Governor Johnson was located. After Bragg had been driven back, Governor Johnson, with professional alacrity, had himself represented as the savior of Tennessee. He had it published all over the country that but for him Gen. Buell would have evacuated Nashville. To this assertion General Buell felt compelled to respond, and he did it in very plain language, as will be seen by the following:

Some months ago, a statement appeared in the newspapers, on the reported authority of Governor Andrew Johnson, that I had only been prevented by his resolute expostulations from abandoning Nashville when I moved North with my army in September last. He has since made the same assertion in a deposition. Whenever I have spoken on this subject, I have denounced the statement as false, and I now repeat the denial. [illegible] I am very willing to bear the responsibility of my own acts or intentions, and it gives me sincere pleasure to acknowledge, at all times, any assistance I may receive from others, either in counsel or action. If I had determined to abandon Nashville it would have been upon my best judgment, and I should cheerfully have submitted to a verdict on the wisdom of my course. I [deny] that I ever intimated to Governor Johnson an intention or wish to leave Nashville without a garrison; that there was no discussion between us pro and con on the subject, and that the determination to hold the place was my own, uninfluenced by him in any manner. I have not that confidence in his judgment or that distrust of my own which would have induced me to seek his counsel.

On account of his official position I called on him first to inform him what I meant to do, and last to tell him what garrison I had concluded to leave. On both occasions, as far as my plans were concerned, I was the speaker and he was the listener. My officers were far more likely to know my views than he, and they have stated that I said always that the political importance far outweighed any purely military bearing of the question, and that I should hold the city.

Nature of the Contest

The contest between the two political parties to day is substantially the same which has been going on, except at short intervals since 1793. Toward the close of Washington's Administration the Democratic party appeared and began to make itself felt as a political organization. Since that time all our greatest political struggles have been had over the question whether the United States is a nation or a confederation of States, whether we have an actual Government or an association of States held together by no stronger bond than their own ever changing views of their separate interests. The rise of the Democratic party brought this controversy on the American people. To this is attributable every movement that has been made to destroy the Union. From this anarchical principle which was introduced in our politics by the Democratic party has proceeded every attempt to subvert the Constitution, every menace to the peace and perpetuity of the Government, every element of disturbance which has endangered the permanent union of the States under the sovereignty of the whole people. The great rebellion was a struggle between those who contended on the one hand for the nationality of the United States, and those who contended on the other for the so called Democratic idea. Slavery was but an incident of the great struggle. The contest is of older origin than any controversy about slavery, and continues after slavery is forever removed out of the way.

The first appearance of the Democratic party as an organization, was in the so-called "Democratic Societies" which were established in all parts of the country in 1793. Prior to that time [illegible] which opposed the Constitution and Washington's Administration had carried on an irregular and unorganized opposition; but in that year they began to coalesce and to grow formidable as a political power. No sooner did the party make its appearance in an organized form than it attacked the sovereign authority of the Constitution. The Pennsylvania [illegible] was its first work. Washington called that insurrection "the first formidable fruit of the Democratic Societies," and stamped it out at once. The malign influences of the party were felt continually during Washington's last term and while the elder Adams was President, but the [illegible] influence of Washington, which was always exerted actively against it, kept it from obtaining the ascendant while he lived. But it was bitter and unscrupulous in its opposition, it attacked the measures and traduced the great name of Washington, its leaders were indefatigable in inciting all the discontented elements to make war on those who maintained the national doctrine against the assaults of the State rights theorists, and the noted Kentucky and Virginia Resolutions, containing the doctrines which led directly to the great rebellion, and to which the "Democratic" party of Oregon have just "renewed their pledge of unswerving fidelity," were put forth as an authoritative declaration of the principles of the party. This manifesto gave general alarm to all men of national views, since it was easy to foresee that under such principles there was no hope of the preservation of the Constitution and the perpetuity of the Union.

Though Washington had hoped to retire forever from political life, he could not but view [illegible] movements with the deepest concern, and [illegible] he entered actively into the struggle to thwart [illegible]. He declared that the policy which had been avowed in the Democratic Resolutions would be most disastrous if it could not be [illegible]. He spoke of the leaders of the op[illegible] as men who were "opposed to the general government, and who by the tendency of their measures would destroy the Union." This declaration was prophetic. The [illegible] which Washington denounced were the very ones which led to secession in 1860-61. The [illegible] pretended that the "Resolutions of '98" gave them an undeniable right to withdraw from the Union, and in assuming the right to go out, they acted in conformity with the early [illegible] principles of the Democratic party. This is what the Oregon platform means by the "time honored principles." Those principles had their origin in rebellion against the Constitution, and must involve the country in civil war as often as they are put in practice. A party holding such principles is a continual menace to the peace of the country. The tendency of these measures was foretold by the best men of the nation, and this generation has had terrible proof of the consequences which they predicted. There is no safety except in the national idea. The great war was fought to vindicate our nationality. But the so-called Democratic idea has not yet been abandoned, and hence the political contest still in [illegible] the very same principles which have so long been in [illegible] before the country.

The stagnation in England continues, according to the latest London papers, while money is so plenty that it is offered to first class borrowers at the astonishingly low rate of one and three eighths per cent per annum. Nobody is so foolish as to suppose that the stagnation there is caused by a lack of currency. Nobody calls for a further issue of bank paper. The Bank of England has more than one hundred million dollars in gold in its vaults, and the Bank of France more than two hundred millions. The commercial distress in both countries is far greater than in the United States. All of which goes to show that a great accumulation of money cannot increase the number of useful commodities in a country nor cause them to be exchanged.

A Washington dispatch of March 12th states that the subject of the resignation of the President in case the points he makes when his counsel appears before the Senate should be voted down by over two-thirds' majority, has attracted a good deal of attention among lawyers. Quite a number of the most prominent hold that such resignation would discharge the President from trial, while many of national reputation at the bar maintain that the Senate could legally proceed to trial and judgment notwithstanding such resignation.

There is war in Owyhee. The Idaho Statesman of the 28th ult., says that the Beachy & Grayson party and the Fogus party got into a fight in which one J. C. Holgate was killed. A young man named Frank was shot and killed by one of his own party by accident. James Howard was shot through the right arm, which will probably have to be amputated. The origin of the difficulty is not explained.

We are requested to publish the law concerning the establishment of new election precincts or districts by the county courts. The law simply requires that the county courts "shall set off and establish election precincts or districts when it may be necessary." This, we believe is the only statute on the subject.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO APRIL 2.

Washington News

CHICAGO, April 1.—The Tribune's special says the President's counsel have summoned as witnesses Generals Steadman, Sherman and Rousseau.

Reports of the Arkansas election are contradictory, both parties claiming the victory.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—In the Senate the message on the part of the House entered soon after 12 o'clock. The minutes of last session were read and amended [illegible] the vote [illegible] by the Chief Justice to decide the [illegible] the question [illegible] Sumner [illegible] correct the Journal by inserting the expression of the Senate [illegible] the Chief Justice was [illegible] demanded the ayes and noes [illegible] resulted in ayes 21, noes 27. So the motion was lost.

The question as to the admissibility of [illegible] testimony about a conversation between [illegible] and [illegible] was submitted to the Senate by the Chief Justice without argument ensued.

CHICAGO, April 1.—Specials say the difficulty between Generals Grant and Butler has [illegible] Wilkes has been chief manager in this [illegible] diplomacy.

It is not supposed that the summoning of [illegible] as witness will delay the trial because the prosecution will admit all that it is proposed to be proved by him without appearance.

The House did no business to-day.

CHICAGO, April 2.—Washington specials say that after Jerry Black concluded his argument in the McCardle case before the Supreme Court, Judge Grier submitted the following paper which was read: "This case was fully argued at the beginning of the month. It is a case which involves not only the liberty and rights of the appellant in this case but of millions of our fellow citizens. The country had a right to expect that it would receive the immediate and solemn attention of the court. By postponement of the case the court have subjected themselves, whether justly or unjustly, to the imputation that we had evaded the performance of a duty imposed upon us by the Constitution and waited for legislative interpretation to supersede our action and relieve us from responsibility. I have only to say that I am ashamed that such an opprobrium should be cast upon the court and that it cannot be refuted."

The Senate yesterday received the nomination of Gen Hancock's brother as Collector of New Orleans.

J. Ross Browne will not leave for China till the arrival of Mr. Burlingame.

The Impeachment Proceedings

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Mr. Stanberry argued against the attempt of the managers to prove a conspiracy between Gen. Thomas and the President.

Mr Butler replied at length showing that the President was guilty of conspiracy.

Judge Curtis followed against the admissibility of evidence.

Mr Bingham, for the managers replied. At the conclusion of his speech Mr Bingham made a point that the hour on both sides had expired.

The Chief Justice said he understood the rule entitled the chief counsel on both sides to have one hour on all questions.

Several Senators dissenting from this ruling the question was put to the Senate and Mr. Chase's ruling was decided against. The question of admitting Burleigh's testimony was decided affirmatively—30 to 11, a strict party vote.

Mr Burleigh testified that on the evening of February 21st, he had an interview with Gen. Thomas Secretary of War ad interim who said that he should take possession of the office at 10 o'clock next morning. He also stated that he would use force to take possession if refused.

Gen Thomas said that if Secretary Stanton barred the doors he would break them down. The question was then asked whether the witness had any conversation with General Thomas while acting as Adjutant General or heard General Thomas say what he would do in case he became Secretary of War. Mr. Evarts objected.

The court here, at a quarter past 3 o'clock, took a recess.

Upon reassembling the question was put in writing. After this the Chief Justice decided the question out of order.

Mr Howard appealed from the decision, which was overruled by 22 to 28.

A question was put whether witness had heard General Thomas make an address to a number of clerks in the War office about a week or ten days prior to February 21st, in which he said he would relax the harsh rules of his predecessor and treat the clerks as gentlemen. General Thomas subsequently told witness that if he had not been arrested on the morning of February 22d he would have broken the door and taken possession of the War office.

Several other witnesses testified to similar language on the part of General Thomas and the court adjourned at a quarter past five. The Senate then went into Executive session.

Indian Matters Spiritualistic.

CHICAGO, April 1.—The Indian Commissioners left this city to-day for Fort Laramie. Reports from Cheyenne say the Cheyennes and northern Arapahoes will be fully represented in the council. The Sioux are expected to arrive by the 5th. Several Indian outrages are reported on the Santa Fe route.

The twentieth anniversary of modern spiritualism was very generally celebrated throughout the country yesterday.

Rhode Island Election.

At the Rhode Island election yesterday, Burnside was re-elected by an increased majority of about 2 080 over last year. The Assembly is largely in favor of the re-election of Senator Sprague.

Miscellaneous.

RICHMOND, April 2.—It is understood that General Schofield will soon remove Gov. Pierpont and the city Mayor.

ALBANY, (N. Y.) April 2.—Mr. Glenn, in the Assembly to-day charged that an attempt had been made to buy his vote on the Erie question. He charged that reports had been made, that votes had been bought and bills passed the House for pecuniary considerations.

NEW YORK, April 1.—The Henry Chauncey has arrived from Panama. The Isthmus is entirely free from sickness. The revolutionists in the interior of Columbia have been defeated. The effort to bribe the military at Carthagena was discovered in season to prevent the outbreak. The [illegible] here are protesting against the heavy taxes.

The British Consul at Santa Martha has undertaken to effect [illegible] between Magdalena and Bolivia.

Americans and other foreigners at Barbacoas have demanded redress from the authorities for outrages on their persons and property by the natives.

It is expected that the half million of dollars advanced by Chile to Marmand, of France, will be a total loss to the Government.

A new silver mine has been discovered at Muscova, in Chile.

There are fears for the wheat crop of Chile on account of heavy rains.

Peru has effected a loan of twelve million dollars. Col Balta is likely to be the next President.

Capt. Montero and other officers of the Peruvian navy have held a meeting in Chile to prevent meddling in politics. The custom duties are fixed at the same rates as under Prado.

The British ship Tudor was burned in the bay of Callao. Loss sixty thousand dollars.

Slight shocks of earthquakes have occurred at Guatemala.

Havana advices from Nassau are to March 30. Difficulty was anticipated in consequence of the action of the Legislature in relation to the church disendowment bill which was passed by five majority. The Executive Council vetoed the measure, whereupon the Assembly became indignant, and requested the Governor to dissolve the Legislature and order a new election, which was refused. It is probable that blood will be shed as the question now becomes one between creeds castes and colors. The liberals have prepared an address to the Home Secretary requesting coercion to force the Legislature.

LONDON, April 2.—In the House of Commons Mr Hunt, Chancellor of the Exchequer asked leave to bring in a bill for the purchase, by the Government of all the telegraph lines in the kingdom. He explained that the bill provided for arbitrators who are to decide what prices are to be paid.

The revenue returns of the first quarter show a deficiency of five millions sterling.

VIENNA, April 1.—The Reichsrath passed the bill providing for general education by a system of public schools.

The New York Herald's dispatch says: The Abyssinian expedition arrived at Lake Ashage on March 6th. The difficulties of the expedition increase as it proceeds. The natives are hostile, the country barren and the roads very bad. King Theodore has despoiled the country far and wide.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

LONDON, April 1.—Dispatches from the Continent say that tumults have broken out in Grenoble, France. It is supposed they are [illegible] by the enforcement of the new army law. No particulars are received.

Negotiations between Prussia and Denmark, in regard to the disputed territory in Schleswig Holstein, continues. It is reported that the Danish Commissioner recently asked the [illegible] of the Island of Als in the Baltic, and the fortress of Duppel on the mainland. The last telegrams say Prussia has decidedly refused the demands of Denmark.

The House of Commons spent the entire day and evening debating on the Irish Church question.

FLORENCE, April 1.—Victor Emanuel is seriously ill. A dispatch from Rome says the Pope is also sick. The nature of his attack is not stated.

MADRID, April 1.—The Spanish Government will grant the Cuban army an organization similar to her own.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—W. H. Abell, who was recently charged with rape upon a little girl was being tried in the police court this morning and when the case came up pulled a razor from his pocket and cut his throat from ear to ear. He expired immediately. He left a note stating that he was entirely innocent of the charge, and that he preferred death to the stigma which would attach to his name. The little girl also persistently denies the truth of the charge against Abell.

Last evening a sewer in course of construction at the corner of Post and Leavenworth streets, fell in, burying alive one of the workmen named James Ryan. His body was dug out last night. It is supposed that death ensued instantaneously.

A proposal will be made to the leading men of this city during the week to establish an association to be called the California Labor and Employment Association. The object of the association is supplying the mutual wants of labor and capital, and especially of providing employment for the tide of immigration now setting into these parts.

Gov. Haight has granted a reprieve until May 8th to Timothy Cronin, now under sentence of death in Marin county.

The following is the basis of a compromise which has been perfected between Oakland and H. W. Carpentier and others. A company has been formed, entitled "The Oakland Wharf Company" for the purpose of building docks, wharves, etc., along the water front. In trust the company conveys to the Western Pacific Railroad Company 500 acres of land on the line of the ship channel having a frontage on that line of half a mile, and extending back far enough to include the required area. Fifty per cent of the Company's stock, we are told, goes to H. W. Carpentier forty per cent to the Railroad Company, and ten per cent to Mr. Felton as fees in the case. The Railroad Company, represented by Mr. Crocker have contracted at [illegible] to expend at least one half a million of dollars on the tract of 500 acres within eighteen months, in the shape of improvements and exclusive of the amount which the Company may have to pay for property on it purchased by them. A survey will be commenced immediately, and contemplates in [illegible] a general plan of water front improvements, wharves, docks, streets, etc., a basin for shipping one hundred acres in extent.

Money Market

Markets.

Flour—Market unchanged.

Wheat—Market seems to have settled down to $2 50, which is what we could find outside for best samples. Some 1,200 sks good milling at $2 45; 1 100 sks choice $2 50.

Barley—Nominal range of market $1 95@2.

Oats—Supplies in the city are well concentrated and [illegible] asking prices are $2 50@2 75. The total stock in the State at last of January was reported at 1 300 [illegible] certain 40,000 centals were in the city and the balance in the interior.

Shipping

The Panama steamer Sacramento arrived at 4 o'clock P M.

The steamer Active sails for Portland Saturday to take her place probably in the new line between that city and Victoria, as a connecting link between Portland and Sitka.

The steamer Wm Taylor, for San Juan will sail on Saturday and the steamer Golden Age for Panama on Monday.

Arrived—Ship Jane, from Nanaimo.

Sailed—April 2d, Swedish brig Sodine for Burrard Inlet, barkentine Monitor for Humboldt, ship Elizabeth Kimball Teekalet.

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican replies to the question whether the Tenure of Office bill is unconstitutional in this wise:

"It is no matter, and nobody's business, so far as impeachment is concerned whether it is constitutional or not. Herein is the fallacy of the New York Times, which has argued the subject with singular weakness and inconsequence. It assumes that if the Supreme Court shall decide against the bill the Senate must not only at once discharge Mr Johnson, as no longer criminal but salute him as the defender of the laws and the vindicator of the Constitution while Congress, humbled and rebuked, shall, in its turn take the position as culprit, and receive the indignant censures of the public. This is simple nonsense. Mr Johnson would be just as guilty of resisting the execution of the laws, if the bill should be declared unconstitutional, in its whole scope and in every provision. His crime lies in making himself the judge of the legality or propriety of a statute passed over his veto."

A Democratic journal in California having warned its party to have nothing to do with the Grand Army of the Republic, the Solano Herald thus replies:

"When it is remembered that the society known as the Grand Army of the Republic is composed entirely of honorably discharged soldiers of the Union army, and that therefore Democrats are ineligible to membership, Democratic warnings against affiliation with it would seem to be supererogatory and useless."

The "latest returns" from Washington show that 130 persons convicted of forgery and counterfeiting have been pardoned by Andrew Johnson. Can any person give an explanation of this unusual clemency?

A joint stock company has been organised to build a flouring mill at Umatilla City. The capital stock is set at $15,000, of which $12,000 has already been subscribed.

The Idaho Statesman gives pen portraits of nine politicians in that Territory who are competing for the Democratic nomination for Congress.

The Hic Jacet mill at Warrens, in North Idaho, has crushed 112 tons yielding $86 per ton.

IMPROVEMENT OF THE WILLAMETTE RIVER.—The following is a copy of a report laid before the City Council at its last meeting, concerning the improvement of the river at Swan Island bar:

PORTLAND, March 31, 1868.

To the Honorable the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Portland: GENTLEMEN—Having been instructed by Col. R. S. Williamson, Corps Engineers U. S. A. and Superintendent of the Willamette river improvements, to afford you any information you might wish in regard to the progress of work for the improvement of the navigation of this river, I respectfully submit the following. In the month of August, 1867, the dredger and snag puller, and both scows, were hauled out and thoroughly caulked, new planking put in where required, the dredger strengthened by heavy hog chains and many important alterations made to render it effective for the work in view. About the 1st of September work was commenced on Swan Island bar and continued until the 1st of December, the main hoisting chain having become entirely useless, breaking several times during the day, and the season far advanced, orders were given to lay up for the winter. At the same time the snag puller was employed for a month and a half. A thorough examination of the bottom along the line of channel both at the mouth and Swan Island was made by the diver and some large snags removed from both places. Accurate surveys of both obstructions were made by Lieut. Heuer, Corps Engineers, assisted by myself. Upwards of a hundred borings were made with the view of ascertaining the nature of the bottom, &c. There being no further use for the snag puller, she was laid up and the crew discharged. On the 27th of last month, having been furnished with a new chain, and the weather being favorable, I recommenced work under orders from the Superintendent and shall continue it until stopped by high water. The heavy freshets of last winter have caused but little change in the cut. To the energy, perseverance and mechanical skill of Engineer Underwood we are mainly indebted for the success thus far attending our efforts.

Not having the necessary data, I can only give an approximate idea of the cost of the work to date, but think I am not far wrong:

Cost of repairs in August		$5,500
"	employees, 4½ mo.	6,000
"	[illegible], 4½ mo.	2,200
"	repairs, wood, oil, rope, &c.	4,000
"	snag puller, 1½ mo., including diver	750
Total coin		$18,050

The accompanying survey made by myself, under the direction of Col. Williamson, will show the nature of the obstructions at Swan Island and the progress of the work for its removal to April 1st. Also submit for your examination, Lieut. Heuer's survey of the mouth. I would state that all the property belonging to the city is in most excellent and effective condition. Should there be any other point on which you desire information, I shall be most happy to furnish it if in my power.

It would give me great pleasure if you and the gentlemen of the Council would appoint a day when you would visit the scene of our operations. A steamer will be at your disposal.

Accompanying this please find specimens of clay and sand, through which more than two-thirds of the cut at Swan Island has been made.

I remain, gentlemen, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant, FRANK N. WEST

DELEGATION OF NEZ PERCES.—Yesterday afternoon Messrs. Jas. O'Neill and Perrin B. Whitman, with a delegation of Nez Perces chiefs, arrived here en route to Washington City. The names of the chiefs are Lawyer, Ut-sin-ma-le-cum, Timothy and Jason. Lawyer is the head chief of all the Nez Perces and a man of great wealth and influence. The delegation are going to Washington in compliance with instructions from the Department at Washington to consult in relation to the unsettled affairs between the United States and the Nez Perces Indians, growing out of the treaties of 1855 and 1863, which had never been carried into effect according to the meaning attached to them by the Indians. It is no doubt expected that the visit of these chiefs to Washington and the great cities of the United States, will result in greatly improving the relations of the government with not only the Nez Perces, but with all the other tribes with whom they common cate. Mr. Whitman goes as interpreter. He has, perhaps, a more accurate knowledge of the various Indian tribes of the Northwest, their languages, habits and dispositions, than any living white man. We predict for the party a continued sensational ovation from the moment of landing at New York.

ACCIDENT TO A STEAMER.—A passenger by the Fannie Patton from Salem yesterday, informs us that, just after passing Rock Island, the steamer struck a rock just mid-ships, with a tremendous concussion; but bumped over without stopping. The captain immediately sent a couple of men below to ascertain if a hole had been made in her bottom. One of them returned with the information that there was a big hole and that he thought the steamer would have to be beached to prevent her from sinking. The other man, however, went to work, and with the assistance of others, soon had the hole battened over and stuffed, so that it was deemed practicable to reach the basin. The pumps were kept working and threw out the water just about as fast as it leaked in. Upon reaching the basin, every man available was put at work unloading the steamer, and in an incredibly short time she was unloaded and floated into the dry dock for repairs. Probably long before sundown, she was repaired and again in the basin, ready for her regular trip to-day.

GRANT MEETING AT EAST PORTLAND.—The Grant Club of East Portland had a large and enthusiastic meeting on Tuesday evening, to hear Judge Smith and others. The hall was crowded and among the audience were a considerable number of ladies. Judge Smith spoke for about two hours, and elicited much hearty applause. A correspondent says he made the best speech ever made in East Portland, and that the demonstrations of the audience were enthusiastic, amounting to a regular "grand swell." The precinct will go for the Union ticket by a sweeping majority. The meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Grant and the Union cause.

PRODUCE FROM WALLA WALLA.—The boat from the Cascades brings almost every day, now, a large freight of flour and wheat from Walla Walla. The flour seems, upon test, to be of excellent quality, but the wheat suffers by comparison with Oregon wheat, so far as plumpness of the grain is concerned. It is said to be much like the wheat of California in berry and dryness. The man who, two years ago, should have predicted this flow of produce down the Columbia river would have been pronounced a visionary and a fool.

HOTEL CLOSED.—The New Columbian hotel was closed yesterday by the Sheriff, who levied an attachment on the furniture and property of Mr. P. B. Sinnott, the landlord. Mr. S. has recently met with unexpected losses, and though he has struggled hard and manfully to adjust his affairs, he is forced for the time to succumb. We trust, however, that we shall soon see him with head above water again, and enjoying a prosperous business.

FREIGHT WAITING.—We learn from all points up the river that the warehouses are full of produce—principally flour and wheat—waiting for the accumulations at Portland to be worked off. The Salem mills have 8,000 bbls of flour on hand, after loading the Brewster with 500 bbls. The Albany and other mills are reported full. The P. T. Co's. warehouse, in Oregon City, is said to have not less than 600 tons of freight in it.

THE LAST ROSE, ETC.—Brother Bill Hand, of the Mountaineer, who went to Salem last week as a delegate to the Union Convention, returned to this city yesterday en route home. He will leave to-morrow morning. Judging from his present appearance, he has not been a "candidate for——etc.," as was insinuated the other day by Chief No. 2 of the Mountaineer. Want Chief No. 2 catch it when Chief No. 1 gets home!

NEW PRODUCTS.—Arrived yesterday, per steamer [illegible], 10 boxes apples, 17 boxes apples, 156 gunnies bacon, 20 cases pork, 13 hf bbls lard, 23 hf bbls dried fruit, 11 bales woolen goods, 128 sks feed, 486 bags wheat. Per Wenat, 4 boxes eggs, 40 qr sks flour, 1 gunny bacon, 1 coop fowls. Per Alert, 3,522 qr sks flour, 111 bags wheat, 207 sks dried fruit, 54 hf bbls lard, 12 sks bacon, 24 boxes eggs.

ANOTHER STEAMER FOR PORTLAND.—Mr. Weidler, agent for the C. O. & M. S. S. Co., states that the steamship Active will sail from San Francisco for this port, on Saturday the 4th inst., and that she will hereafter run between this city and Victoria. The Active is a fine little ship, just about the right size for the Victoria trade, and her advent will be hailed with pleasure by, at least, all the traveling public.

KILLED.—A man named John Delaney lost his life on Wednesday in the following manner: With some others, he was at work near Buck's sawmill on the Clackamas river, unloading a saw log from a truck. By some accident the chocks gave way and the log rolled off the truck, Mr. Delany knocking him down and rolling over him. His chest and head were crushed, so that he died in about two hours.

WASHINGTON COUNTY TAXES.—Mr. J. C. Moore, Sheriff of Washington county, is in this city looking after the taxes due that county from residents of Portland. He desires us to say that he may be found to-day at the Merchants' Exchange where he will meet tax payers and settle with them. All persons owing such taxes should call to-day, as Mr. Moore will only remain one day in the city.

FREIGHT FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The brig Brewster, Paul Curno, Master, will sail this morning for San Francisco, with 20,520 qr sks Salem mills flour, and 21 cases hams. The steamer Couch will tow her to Astoria, whence she will put immediately to sea, if the weather be favorable.

TO SAIL.—The John L. Stephens, is expected to arrive about Saturday afternoon, is advertised to leave for San Francisco, on or about next Thursday.

FIRES.—Within the last two or three days, heavy black smoke has been rising from several points in the distance as if from fires in the woods.

A Dayton correspondent writes:

The friends of Mr. Vallandigham say that he is now for "war to the knife" against the party managers in Ohio. They say that there will be a third party, with Vallandigham at the head, and that it will triumph over both the old parties. If this programme does not succeed, then there will be civil war, and there will be no Senate of the United States in less than two years. The details of this programme are too serious for contemplation. "Things is workin'."

A Western editor remarks that he is glad to receive marriage notices, but requests that they be sent soon after the ceremony and before the divorce is applied for. He has had several notices spoiled in this way.

TAILORS WANTED.—Six A 1 Coat, Pants and Vest Makers can find ready employment by calling on W. King, Superintendent of the tailoring department, at Barman Bros., corner Front and Morrison streets. P. S.—None but the very best of workmen need apply and a single type can [illegible].

LADIES.—Please call to-day and examine the new stock of goods just received at Mrs. Levy's, consisting of the finest [illegible], all the latest and most fashionable [illegible] for the season 1868.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers;
Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water, invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels,
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last but not least, it is the only safe stimulant being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

G. VENARD.
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

Death of Distinguished People

From the New York Sun, March 7th

MRS. JULIA DEAN COOPER.

Mrs. Julia Dean Cooper, an excellent and popular actress, known formerly as Miss Julia Dean, and more recently as Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne, died yesterday at the residence of her father in law, 251 East Thirty ninth street, in the thirty eighth year of her age. She was a native of Pleasant Valley, N. Y. and made her first appearance upon the stage at the Old Bowery Theatre in 1845 as Julia in the "Hunchback." For a number of years she appeared with great success in the chief cities of the United States in this part which was perhaps her best, and in others of a similar character, such as Pauline, in the "Lady of Lyons," Juliet, Marianna in "The Wife," &c. Her last engagement in New York was at the Broadway Theatre in 1867. She was married about twelve years ago to Mr. Arthur Hayne, of South Carolina. Two years ago she contracted a marriage with Mr. James G. Cooper of this city. Ill health had lately compelled her to decline professional engagements. She leaves several children.

BALL HUGHES.

Ball Hughes, an Englishman by birth, and a sculptor of decided genius, died on Thursday, at Boston, at the age of sixty two. He was educated in the studio of Edward Hodges Bailey, and while a student, won twice the silver medal, and once the gold medal, offered as a prize by the Royal Academy. He also executed busts of George IV, and other members of the royal family, and was much employed by persons of distinction in England. In 1829 he emigrated to the United States, and executed in New York a life size marble statue of Hamilton, the first work of the class produced in America, and which was destroyed in the Merchants' Exchange in the great fire of 1835. Trinity Church, in this city, contains a monumental alto-relief by him, in memory of Bishop Hobart. Among his other prominent works were "Little Nell," "Uncle Toby and the Widow Wadman," "Oliver Twist," a bronze statue of Nathaniel Bowditch, the model for an equestrian statue of Washington and a bust of Washington Irving. He also produced some remarkable sketches done with a hot iron on wood, and occasionally lectured upon art. For many years previous to his death, he resided in Boston or its neighborhood. In the number or variety of his works, he never fulfilled his early promise.

GENERAL ASBOTH.

General Alexander Asboth, United States Minister to the Argentine Republic, died recently at his post, in his 57th year. He was a Hungarian by birth, and after serving some years in an Austrian regiment of cuirassiers, and subsequently as a civil engineer, took an active part in the Hungarian war for independence, in 1848-9. At the close of the struggle he was Adjutant General of the patriotic army. He accompanied Kossuth to the United States, of which country he became in due time a citizen, and for ten years was engaged in a variety of occupations. In 1861 he received the appointment of Chief of Staff to Gen. Fremont, and soon after was commissioned a Brigadier General of volunteers. He took an active part in the military operations in the West in 1861-2, and proved himself an active and experienced officer. He subsequently served in the South and for some time commanded the Department of Florida. Shortly after the close of the war he received the diplomatic appointment which he held at the time of his death.

COLORED STARS.—If a brilliant star be observed when near the horizon, it will be seen to present the beautiful phenomenon of "colored scintillation." The colors thus exhibited exceed in purity even those seen in the solar spectrum or in the rainbow. By comparison with them the light which flashes from the ruby, the emerald, the sapphire, or the topaz, appears dull and almost earthy. There are four or five stars which present this phenomenon with charming distinctness. The brilliant Vega, in the constellation Lyra, which rarely sets in our latitude, is one of these. At midnight in winter, and earlier with the approach of spring, this splendid bluesteel star may be seen as it skirts the southern horizon, scintillating with red, blue and emerald light. Arcturus twinkles yet more brilliantly low down toward the northwest in our spring evenings. Capella is another noble scintillator seen low down toward the horizon during the summer nights. But these, though they are the most brilliant northern stars, yet shine with a splendor far inferior to that of Sirius, the famous dog-star. No one can mistake this noble orb as it rises above the southern horizon in our winter months. The vivid colors exhibited by Sirius as it scintillates have afforded a favorite image to poets. Homer compares the celestial light which gleamed from the shield and helmet of Diomed to the rays of "Sirius, the star of autumn," which "shines with a peculiar brilliancy when laved by ocean's waves;" and, to pass at once from the father of poetry to our greatest modern poet, we find in Tennyson's "Princess" the same image, where he says of Arac and his brothers:

> —Like the fiery Sirius alters hue,
> And bickers into red and emerald, shone
> Their morions, washed with morning, as they came."

It is difficult to persuade ourself that these ever-changing tints do not really belong to the stars. But there is now no doubt that they are caused by our own atmosphere. Unequally warm, unequally dense, and unequally moist in its various strata, the air transmits irregularly the colored rays which together produce the light of a star. Now one color prevails over the rest, and now another, so that the star appears to change color. But it is only low down toward the horizon that these changes take place to their full extent. In the tropics, where the air is uniform in texture, so to speak, the stars do not scintillate unless they are quite close to the horizon, "a circumstance," says Humboldt, "which gives a peculiarly calm and serene character to the celestial depths in those countries." —Fraser's Magazine.

"DOWN WITH THE NIGGER!"—The following little article is from the N. Y. Tribune, which has done more for Freedom, Justice and the Rights of Man than any other influence in existence:

"The Democracy are bound together with but one tie—'Down with the nigger,' Men who should know better, Christian men, who read Bibles and pray, vehemently, join in this outcry, 'Down with the nigger.' Cowards that they are, they do not see that these black fellow-beings were not thought unworthy to shed their blood for the Union. Ingrates that they are, they have no compensation for the tyranny, the oppression—the endless crimes they have heaped upon this race. They have robbed them, trampled them in the dust, taken their children—children, let us say it with shame, with their own Saxon blood flowing in their veins—and kept them in slavery. Slanderers that they are, instead of helping these poor people in their efforts to rise, they deride, belie, ridicule, slander them 'Down with the nigger'—'Down with the nigger.' This is all. They can no longer rob him, nor steal his labor, nor buy and sell him, nor hunt him with hounds, and cover him with stripes, and ravish his wife and daughters! Down with him, of course!"

THAT BOX IN THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT.—In the House of Representatives on Monday a resolution was introduced instructing the Treasurer of the United States to open a certain wooden box which has been in the vaults of the Treasury Department for many years, and make known the contents thereof to the House. The box alluded to is a small wooden one, twelve inches square. It was deposited in the vault of the Treasury about twenty-five years ago, where it remains unopened, and contains a large nugget of gold. In 1842 or 1843 a lot of valuable jewels, gold snuff-boxes, gold sword scabbards and other valuable articles were stolen from a case in the Patent Office building, where they had been deposited by the Government and various officials who had recieved them as presents from foreign nations. They had been placed in the museum at the Patent Office, our laws forbidding any officers of the Government receiving presents from foreign powers. The gold had all been melted, but was recovered, in bulk. A short time since one of the heirs of a Mr. Harris, who recieved the snuff-box from the Emperor of Russia, made claim for it, and the matter has been brought before Congress.

Rev. F. Blanchet gives notice in the Jacksonville Reveille that some scoundrels broke lately into the Catholic church of Allen Gulch, and took away the altar fixtures, valued at about one hundred dollars. He offers one hundred dollars reward.

Andrew Johnson is said to be whining because he is to be tried before Jeff. Davis. How could Jeff. be tried so long as Andy stood in the way? By impeaching Andy we may find a way to reach the President's pet.

Modern Romances.

London Punch is taking "Aurora Floyd," "No Name," "Tangled Skein," etc., school of literature very amusingly, in the publication in weekly parts, of a "Tale of the Times," called "Mokeanna, or the White Witness." It is illustrated in the Pre-Raphael style, so much affected just now by the London weeklies, by way of enhancing the wierd interest of their startling tales, and, of course, the great requisite, a bigamy, is not wanting to make the satire complete. Here is a specimen:

Sir Lionel's carriage is at the door.

"Farewell, mia Bettina," he said, pressing his wife to his heart. "I shall come back when I return."

"I doubt thee not, Lionel," was his weeping lady's reply, and the coachman, having embraced the calm but emotionable butler, ascended to his seat in the rumble, and the vehicle was soon lost to view.

Two girlish figures, each dressed in a robe de soie, approached.

"Mamma," they cried, "will you not trust us now?"

"I will," replied Lady Bettina. "Agnesia; come, Evelina." They entered the "Brown Study."

"Listen," said Lady Bettina, "to my Secret. Before I married Sir Lionel I was young and lovely."

The lid of Agnesia's eye trembled as she looked towards her sister. Evelina, a proficient in the French tongue, murdered "gammon" in her ear.

Without noticing their emotion the mother proceeded.

"I wedded one William Barlow, a man beneath my station in life. Seized with an original idea that my rich brother did not need his money, I induced Barlow to—to—" she faltered.

Agnesia quickly pressed her delicate hand from one lobe of her exquisitely moulded ear to the other.

"Yes," continued Lady Bettina, reassured by her offering's sympathy, "the property became mine. William Barlow, however, was obliged to fly his country. A warrant was out against him, and in his absence he was arraigned, prosecuted, and found guilty."

"Sentenced?" inquired Evelina, leaning forward.

"Aye, and such is the vaunted justice of English law—executed!"

A groan of horror burst from their pale lips, and Lady Bettina hid her face in a variegated bandanna.

"Sometime after this," Lady Bettina went on, "I married Sir Lionel, who yesterday informed me that his wife was still living. He has gone away to seek her. I hope soon to have tidings of her decease."

"Mamma," said Agnesia, "we, too, have somewhat to confide in you. Are you strong enough to bear it?"

Lady Bettina filled up a silver goblet with sparkling eau de vie and drank it off at a single draught.

"I am ready."

"We," began Agnesia, "are—"

"Break it gently," remonstrated Lady Evelina.

"I will," returned her sister. "Mamma, we are not your daughters!"

"I suspected as much," murmured the Countess.

IS HE INSANE?—The New York Sun brings forward with confidence the theory that President Johnson is insane from the use of opium. It suggests he was in the midst of of intense excitement during the war, and that the violence of his speeches even then indicated an unbalanced mind. The well known demonstrations upon the occasion of his inauguration cannot be ascribed to drink, says the Sun, but must have been due to the effect of opium and excitement upon a diseased brain. Preston King, the most intimate friend of Mr. Johnson, positively asserted that this was the case; that the latter had not drank more than a glass of wine that day, and that his mind was impaired by excitement. In the same way the denunciation of Congress in the notorious speech of February 22, 1866, and the scenes of the "swinging round-the-circle" expedition, are explained. It is reported, also, that vicious indulgence and the use of opium have played an important part in bringing Mr. Johnson to the condition in which he lifted the hand of a madman against the authority of Congress and the laws of the land. The Sun suggests, "not to Mr. Johnson that he should commit suicide, but to the able and the distinguished counsel who have been retained to defend him, that they take into serious consideration the expediency of interposing to the articles of impeachment the plea of insanity. The sentiment of justice which pervades the people demands that the President should be fairly tried. We see no probability that any defence except that of insanity can be successfully made. If acquitted on this ground, the President could be removed for inability to perform the duties of his office. That would be better for him, preferable on account of his family and pleasanter to a majority of the people, than that he should be adjudged guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors. It would be melancholy, but not a national disgrace."

LITTLE MAC.—The New York Tribune propounds the following conundrums about the late General McClellan:

"Can it be true that General McClellan also is waiting for a pardon before venturing to return? What has delayed his recently announced forward movements? Is he waiting to run as Vice President with Pendleton?"

To which the New York Evening Post replies thus:

"It is shameful to see the lengths to which partisan hate carries some writers—as in the case of the Tribune. General McClellan remains abroad not from any such sinister designs as are hinted by this writer, but, as we have heard, because he has hitherto been unable to decide by which line of steamers it would be best for him to return."

The alacrity of old Mr. Welles, the Secretary of the navy, in indorsing Mr. Johnson's account of his conversation of January 14, with General Grant, reminds us of a saying of Mr. Lincoln. "If there is ever any difference in the Cabinet," said Mr. L., with a twinkle in his eye, "there is one thing I am always certain of—the member from Connecticut is sure to be on my side."—New York Sun.

The Herald says: "We know several Democratic bar keepers who we believe are fully equal intellectually and morally to either Lincoln or Grant."

The reason for thus "gratuitously" puffing Barroom, is too obvious to need explanation. Since the editor was snubbed in the Convention he has evidently become demoralized.—Roseburg Ensign.

SOOTHING AND BRACING.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Although the fame of this renowned Invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and Intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

OF THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD!

Running West from Omaha

ACROSS THE CONTINENT,

ARE NOW COMPLETED.

THIS BRINGS THE LINE TO THE EASTERN BASE of the Rocky Mountains, and it is expected that the track will be laid thirty miles further, to Evans Pass, the highest point on the road, by January. The maximum grade from the foot of the mountains to the summit is but eighty feet to the mile, while that of many eastern roads is over one hundred. Work in the rock cuttings on the western slope will continue through the winter, and there is now no reason to doubt that the entire grand line to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870.

The means provided for the construction of this Great National Work are ample. The United States grants its Six Per Cent Bonds at the rate of from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, for which it takes a second lien as security, and receives payment to a large if not to the full extent of its claim in services. These bonds are issued as each twenty miles section is finished, and after it has been examined by the United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first class road, thoroughly supplied with depots, repair shops, stations, and all the necessary rolling stock and other equipments.

The United States also makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, which will be a source of large revenue to the Company. Much of this land in the Platte Valley is among the most fertile in the world, and other large portions are covered with heavy pine forests and abound in coal of the best quality.

The Company is also authorized to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an amount equal to the issue of the Government and no more. Hon. E. D. Morgan and Hon. Oakes Ames are Trustees for the Bondholders, and deliver the bonds to the Company only as the work progresses, so that they always represent an actual and productive value.

The authorized capital of the Company is One Hundred Million Dollars, of which over five millions have been paid in upon the work already done.

EARNINGS OF THE COMPANY.

At present, the profits of the Company are derived only from its local traffic, but this is already much more than sufficient to pay the interest on all the Bonds the Company can issue, if not another mile were built. It is not doubted that when the road is completed the through traffic of the only line connecting the Atlantic and Pacific States will be large beyond precedent, and, as there will be no competition, it can always be done at profitable rates.

It will be noticed that the Union Pacific Railroad is, in fact, a Government Work, built under the supervision of Government officers, and to a large extent with Government money, and that its bonds are issued under Government direction. It is believed that no similar security is so carefully guarded, and certainly no other is based upon a larger or more valuable property. As the Company's are offered for the present AT PAR IN U. S. CURRENCY, they are the cheapest security in the market, being more than 15 per cent. lower than U. S. Stocks. They pay

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,

or over NINE PER CENT. upon the investment. Subscriptions will be received in Portland by and by the Company's advertised Agents throughout the United States. Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the bonds will be sent free of charge by return express.

A NEW PAMPHLET AND MAP, showing the Progress of the Work, Resources for Construction, and Value of Bonds, may be obtained at the Company's Offices or of its advertised Agents, or will be sent free on application.

TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

OF WHICH THE ABOVE IS AN ILLUSTRATION, has FOUR SETS OF BUCKETS, AND USES THREE FOURTHS OF THE WATER TWICE.

The old high priced, unequalled and unrivalled wheel has been RATED OUT by a fair working trial made by Mr. H. Kelly, at his saw mill, and the public can see what he says as to the capacity of the two wheels in the following testimonial over his own signature.

MR. H. W. SHIPLEY, Sir: In reply to your inquiry as to how I like your Pacific Turbine Wheel, I have to say that I have used one over shot and three Leffel wheels 10, 13 and 15½ inch diameters. When I substituted your 12 inch wheel for the 13 inch Leffel wheel, though unfinished it worked the machinery like a top, using 52 feet water per minute more than the 13 inch L. Wheel. At your request I subsequently took your wheel out that it might be finished, and then I put in a 15 inch Leffel, but it gave no better power than yours while it used 62 cubic feet more water per minute. After some months I replaced your wheel and am still using it with the most satisfactory results. I have subjected it to some severe tests. For instance, while running the circular saw in a log which just filled it, I added the planer with a 9 inch knife, cutting from one eighth to one fourth of an inch depth, without in the least slacking the speed. After thorough tests of both wheels I am satisfied that your wheel with gates one eighth of an inch open gives as much power as the Leffel with gates one third open. At half gate your wheel gives double the power of the Leffel at half gate. At full gate, the power of yours exceeds that of the Leffel by from ten to twelve per cent. At quarter gate, the Leffel holds no comparison with yours at quarter gate.

N. B.—Mr. Shipley was not present at either of the trials of his wheel, being sick at the first, and absent from the state, at the second trial.

Medical.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis, in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, bloated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by any of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are afflicted under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who with bogus sworn to certificates cure the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearny st., corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 852.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 852 ON THE letters.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. G. that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.
